Seito Table.

Design: Wolfgang C. R. Mezger.

Table sculpture. There are tables that simply do not need showcasing. Their uniqueness makes them necessarily eye-catching. And that is the case with Seito Table. This dining table is a dream of lightness with its balanced lines, angles and surface. Effective understatement: the table top made of white quartz, positioned on a base made of elegant nut wood or oak. Small colored inclusions in the quartz stone are part of the materiality and reflect the natural beauty of the surface. It is a joy to gather around such an impressive table in the very best of company. À table.

We would greatly appreciate a courtesy copy.
