

Case Study

Sandvik

Bushell Interiors collaborated with Reddy A+U to develop an activity-based working environment to accommodate 150 employees.

One distinctive aspect of this project was the tailored variety of workspaces, which were equipped with furniture solutions to facilitate both in-office and remote tasks, drawing inspiration from Sandvik's core business in 'Rock Technology' Mining. The furniture supplied included workstations, task chairs, screens, and loose furniture.

Client:	Sandvik
Architect	Reddy Architect + Urbanism
Building Contractor:	MAC Interiors
Supply Partners:	König & Neurath, Inclass, Andreu World, Humanscale, Muuto, Marset, Softline, Estel.

