Linee sinuose e naturali seguono il profilo di Cori, la collezione di Andrea Steidl che invita a prendersi una pausa tra forme comode e rasserenanti. La scocca lascia cogliere la sua essenza nella versione senza rivestimento: una sagoma morbida, dalla curvatura magistrale, e un sottile gioco di pieni e vuoti mostrano come solo una sapiente lavorazione possa incontrare i progetti creativi più audaci. Cori è adattabile a svariati contesti. Dalle hall degli hotel alle sale d'attesa, dalle zone lounge agli ambienti domestici, questa trasversale collezione fa incontrare comfort e ricerca estetica con una visione contemporanea. Può essere tappezzata in una vasta gamma di colori e materiali o, su richiesta, realizzata nella preziosa versione in legno.

Gentle curves and natural lines follow the profile of Cori, the Andrea Steidl collection that invites you to relax between comfortable and soothing shapes. The shells essence is captured in the version without upholstery: a soft shape, with masterful curvature, and a subtle play of solids and voids demonstrate how only skillful workmanship can meet the most daring creative projects. Cori is adaptable to various contexts. From hotel lobbies to waiting rooms, from lounge areas to domestic environments, this transversal collection is the culmination of comfort, aesthetic research and contemporary vision. It can be upholstered in a wide range of colours and materials or, upon request, realised in the precious wooden version.
