

Case Study

DCC Quayside Building

Bushell Interiors supplied furniture for the Quayside office building for Dublin City Council, including meeting tables, waiting area seating, desks, and task chairs.

The selection supports a functional and welcoming workspace, complementing the project's contemporary architecture while ensuring durability, comfort, and flexibility for everyday civic and administrative use.

Client: Dublin City Council – New Docklands Office
Architect: Urban Agency
Building Contractor: Purcell Construction
Supply Partners: Andreu World, Koenig+Neurath, Pedrali, Inclass, Humanscale

